

Byron Brown

Vs

Erie County Board of Elections

Order Show Cause
With Temporary Relief

Having been advised by G. Steven Pigeon, counsel to Byron Brown, of situations involving various voting locations in the city of Buffalo wherein a number of voters waiting in line have been told that they will not have the time to vote by nine o'clock., and having been further advised that voters have been told to go home, and the Court having been assured by the Commissioners that every effort has been made to ensure that this has not and will not occur,

The court hereby directs that the Board will follow its usual and customary to ensure that any individual in line at nine o'clock (9:00 p.m.) be allowed to vote regardless of the actual time his/her vote is cast..
